Living in Tilst

Tilst is a suburb to Aarhus, the second largest city in Denmark, and houses many opportunities for shopping groceries (Bilka, Netto, 365 Discount), eating out and spare time activities like sports and swimming through the local sports association TST. The many stores, restaurants, and businesses in Tilst also means great opportunities to get a spare time job.

Aarhus city centre is only 8 km and approximately 30 minutes away, either by bus or bicycle. Many busses go to and from Tilst, including bus 3A, 14 and 114, and by taking the bus to Aarhus Central Station you can connect to busses, trains, or the light rail and go wherever you want, since Denmark has an extensive public transportation system.

Tilst is an interesting and welcoming multicultural area with both a church, mosque, and a Buddhist temple, so there is room for everyone with a great mix of newcomers and locals.
